

PROPERTY OF
LOUIS J. DUBOIS

Pit-A-Pat goes my Heart
Rossi

— To —
MISS KATIE CORR,
PHILADELPHIA, PA.

PIT-A-PAT GOES MY HEART !

(PALPITARE DE CUORE)
WALTZ SONG.

Words by LILLY HENDRIX.

MUSIC BY PROPERTY OF
LOUIS I. ENRIQUE

ANGELO ROSSI,

AUTHOR OF

"TWO ORPHANS,"

"SAILOR'S BRIDE,"

"ALONE I SADLY WEPT,"

"DREAMING, FONDLY DREAMING,"

"GRAND TONIGHT MARCH, A TILED PROPHECY"

(3)

Published by H. BOLLMAN,
SAINT LOUIS.

PIT-A-PAT GOES MY HEART

3

Words by LILLY HENDRIX

Music by ANGELO ROSSI

Allegretto

PIANO

3. Oh! bright dream of bliss, should I

1 Now, was he in earnest when 2 He loved me, he loved me, oh

ev - er a wake, And find thee un - real, my i - dol all whis - pering to me, Those sweet ten - der words in the sha - dowy ma - gi - cal words, My soul thrill'd with glad - ness my heart beat with nought, My poor lit - tle heart would then quiv - er and break. And the lane, Last eve as we sat 'neath the old ma - ple - tree, Where the love, 'Twas sweet - er, far sweet - er to me than the bird, That light of my life would go out with the thought.

mock - ing bird joy - ous - ly ca - rol'd loves strain.
mer - ri - ly sang from the branches a - bove.

That he could be false it could nev - er be

The sun was just sink - ing be - hind the tall
The kiss that he gave me still burns on my

Simplified accompaniment.

so, So trust - ing and hope - ful my heart will re - main, Thro' trees, The vio - lets droop'd low in the fast fa - ding light, The cheek, The pic - ture he drew me in fan - cy I see, Of a fz ral . . . . . len . . . . . tan . . . . . do long years of wait - ing, the fu - ture I know Will prove that my prom - ise he gave me was heard by the breeze, And whis - per'd a dear lit - tle home, - that we would soon seek, Where He would for bright hopes are not all in vain. Con vivo.

far to the stars of the night Pit - a - pat goes my heart, now the measure to ev - er prove con - stant to me.

Piu lento.

a tempo.

swell. Why my heart beats Pit - a - pat, can you tell.

Pit - a - pat, Pit - a - pat, Pit - a - pat Why my heart beats Pit - a - pat can you tell.

cella parte

P - A - P

